

CONTENTS

THE BIG PICTURE

- 8 How Much You Really Need to Retire
We help you figure where you stand.
You could be better off than you think.
- 16 Make Sure You're on Track Our worksheet will help you clarify your nest-egg goal and how to achieve it.
- 21 Should You Pay Off the Mortgage?
You might relish the freedom, but there may be better uses for your cash.
- 23 Build a Budget That Works Start by estimating your retirement expenses.
- 26 Don't Overlook These Tax Breaks
See what Uncle Sam has in store for you when you turn 65 or retire.
- 30 When You Retire One at a Time
Couples can expect to renegotiate their financial and personal priorities.

THE RIGHT INVESTMENTS

- 36 Build a Secure Retirement A well-constructed framework is job one.
- 42 Make Your Money Last a Lifetime
Two approaches to retirement investing that offer safety, growth and income.
- 45 The Best Funds to Reach Your Goals
Use our Kiplinger 25 picks to create portfolios that fit your time frame.
- 48 A Fresh Look at Target-Date Funds
How to pick one that matches your risk tolerance and expected retirement date.
- 50 Check Up on Your 401(k) Detailed performance data on the 100 biggest funds in defined-contribution plans.

CONTENTS

RETIREMENT INCOME

- 52 A Social Security Road Map How to maximize your benefits whether you are single, married, divorced or widowed.
- 58 Annuities That Pay Now or Later An immediate annuity assures steady income now. If longevity runs in your family, a deferred-income annuity is worth a look.
- 60 Max Out Your Retirement Plan Make the most of the tax breaks for IRAs, Roths and 401(k)s.

A HEALTHY RETIREMENT

- 64 30 Ways to Save on Health Care Insurers are increasingly shifting costs to consumers. Our tips will help level the playing field, no matter whether you are covered through your employer, Medicare or on your own.

70 Signing Up for Medicare Although you're eligible at 65, there are good reasons to postpone enrollment. Just be sure you know the rules to avoid gaps in coverage or a lifetime penalty.

74 The Right Time to Buy Long-Term-Care Insurance For many people, the sweet spot is in their fifties and early sixties. We help you find a policy that is affordable and meets your needs whether you're married or single.

LIVING WELL

76 The New Retirement Retirement is no longer an either-or proposition. You may retire from one career and start another. Or you may continue to work full-time or shift to part-time. We help you find the path that's right for you.

80 Eight Smart Places to Retire College towns offer opportunities for lifelong learning, concerts and theatrical performances, and a chance to root for alma mater. The ones we picked also offer a reasonable cost of living. Plus: Best and worst states for taxes.

88 Retire in Style Continuing care communities let you enjoy all the amenities of resort living year-round—and promise to provide skilled care when you need it.

91 Trying on a New Career Tillie O'Neal-Kyles uses her corporate know-how to prepare women for the working world.

92 Clear Out Your Clutter Downsizing can simplify your life and put some cash in your pocket. We tell you the best ways to sell or donate your stuff.

96 Retire, or Not Greg Contro has retired not once but twice—and is poised to begin a third career.

30

ERIC MILLETTE